Customer Reviews

I knew nothing about selling on before reading this book, literally nothing. I had no idea that I could become a third part retailer and benefit from Amazon's structure and business expertise to sell products. Now I can honestly say that I feel ready to kickstart my own business. Why do I think this book is invaluable? First of all, Michael Marani doesn't hold anything back from the reader: he clearly wants you to be as successful as him. It starts with the proper mindset, and an essential part of that is acknowledging that itâ€™ll take a lot of hard work, late nights, negotiation, table building, but in the end, youâ€™ll have a business thatâ€™ll basically âœœrun itselfâ€• and provide a consistent stream of passive income. In order to achieve that you need to find the right tools to help you maximize profit, and that means making the most of your time (time is money after all). Marani created The textbook for selling on . Itâ€™s so comprehensive that it even teaches you how to use html codes according to â€™s rules, how to find the best sources, and how to purchase a clean-looking logo for your brand. The product selection section is essential to anyone interested on start selling on . The amount of invaluable information available on this step-by-step is sure to keep you getting back to it from time to time. This isnâ€™t the kind of book that youâ€™ll read once and understand it all, because it describes an intricate process. Like I said before, selling on is hard work, and without the proper tools, you might waste your time by trial and error. But itâ€™s much easier to simply follow Maraniâ€™s tips and use the right merchant tools (there a lot of sites thatâ€™ll make your life easier). To sum up, thereâ€™s no other guide as complete and accurate as this one. 5 stars!

His product selection method is pretty difficult to follow as it was explained, I got the feeling this ebook was just a primer for his real motive to drive traffic to his instruction course being developed? I'm signed up for the online course so we'll see how that goes but as is this book doesn't do a very good job of teaching (me) how to evaluate products for sourcing, private branding and FBA...Sorry Michael ;(

What a great resource! When someone tells you that their book is a "step by step" guide this author wasn't kidding. The instruction is easy to follow and comprehend. What I found is the book doesn't focus on only what to do, but what not to do! You feel like you are sitting down with a trusted friend who is willing to show you the way. I was initially skeptical about this option as a second career, mostly because of not really understanding where to go or how to get started. That is no longer the case. This is a great road map to new possibilities!

This book is a straightforward explanation of a process for becoming a seller on with a potential for success. The author does a good job of setting expectations that his approach is not a get rich quick scheme. I commend the author for his lean approach and getting down to the practice rather than wasting time on motivation and mindset. The Audible narration is exceptional, with a level of professionalism I would not expect for this type of book. I find myself enjoying listening more than actually reading--it's that good. One minor flaw in the book comes early in the process. The author marches step by step for how to research products and has us build a spreadsheet with pairs of columns called #1 Product Ranking, #1 Product Reviews, #2 Product Ranking, #Product Reviews, and so on for #3. He explains what to put in the #1 columns but omits what columns #2 and #3 are for. Am I dense or is something missing? Is this the 2nd and 3rd ranked products in the search? I can't find any reference to these extra columns. Oh well, the book still has a useful method and I'm eager to apply it.

"The Sales Formula is a very informative and helpful book about passive income through . At the moment I am learning on how to make money out of to supplement my income and this book provides me many key ideas and suggestions to become a successful on .It is well written, easy to follow step by step instructions and excellent description about the subject.Highly recommended to those who are just starting and would want to consider selling on .

An honest, helpful guide. Prior to starting my own sales, I'd read dozens upon dozens of eBooks providing fantastic information on the sales process. However, when it came down to crunch time - I wanted a clear, to the point "guide" that would remind me of what's important and walk me through the steps of getting up and running. The Sales Formula does just that. I highly recommend it as a tool to helping you get up and running on sales.

Excellent. I would buy this before spending money on any other program - period. It is clear, concise and helpful. I have started the process for private label now under Michael's guidance and step by step instructions for spreadsheets. If you are not comfortable with spreadsheets this could be a difficult read for you.I bought this in April 2015.Thanks
