This book has terrific music, but the layout is not exactly worthy of it. The table of contents goes in order of the CD, not the book; which also means that the book and the CD aren't in synch. The only colored photos are on the front and back covers, and there's only one more black and white one on the title page (same as the front cover). Besides that the music is great to play. Davy Jones, Jack Sparrow, Under Water March, and many more. It's very exciting to play recognizable tunes from the movies. Any Pirate fan would enjoy this book.

I love this book. It contains songs from the first two Pirates movies. About half of the songs are easy enough to play well after little practice, the rest are more difficult and take lots of practice. The CD music is great, and playing along with it sure makes me sound better!

Truthfully, this is a REALLY easy flute book. If you're looking for a solo or anything to play, sure it's okay for kids parties or a middle school band but anything higher... I'd look for something else.

I have not picked up my flute for two years and decided to start up again. After an hour or two, it was coming back to me. These pieces are so lively and I picture the movie scenes as I play. Fun to play and enjoy.
