Customer Reviews

Double, double toil and trouble; Fire burn, and caldron bubble.I recently participated in a staging of The Scottish play, later did the witches scene in a bonfire event and then attended a showing of it in the local park. You would think I might be all Macbeth's out. But nope, turns out I had room for just one more! I adore this play and this dramatization is wonderful!! It is like sitting in the wings listening to the play! Such wonderful voices bringing the Bard's words to life! I loved the pace and feel of this whole recording! So easy to forget it is only a few hours long, such a wealth of information and character! This would be a wonderful companion for teens struggling with the text. Also, great for folks like myself who adore big Willy! The only way this could have been better is if I were present at one of this fabulous troupe's performances! I adore the theatricality of it all!Disclosure â “ I received a copy of this audiobook in exchange for an honest review. All thoughts, opinions and ratings are my own.
