Microsoft Licensing Concepts

Synopsis

“Microsoft licensing is complicated.” • The phrase is uttered around the world hundreds of times a day. This book, sadly, won't make Microsoft licensing less complicated. But people who work with Microsoft software, who purchase it for their companies, and who are confused about the licenses they need will learn basic terms and concepts that help them come to grips with the complexity. It explains common licensing terms and different types of licenses and license rights in plain English.

Customer Reviews

Paul is a well-known and respected analyst. I have always enjoyed his articles and presentations, which are rich in concepts, strategies, resources and best practices. This book follows those principles and is a great starting point if you need to understand Microsoft Licensing and broaden the understanding of your options.

The Microsoft Licensing Concepts book is a very well-constructed guideline as to the complexity of the various options of Microsoft Volume Licensing. The book is highly recommended to employees who are selling Microsoft software or advising on software asset management. Furthermore, the book will be a huge asset to any companies CIO or IT Managers and it will assist with companies attaining compliancy as well as guiding companies to purchase their Microsoft software correctly. We have found great benefit from the Microsoft Licensing Concepts book.
