Customer Reviews

Since this is transcribed with guitar-only in mind, it can be difficult to discern what is intended to be guitar and what is intended to be a keyboard part. Careful listening and familiarity with the music helps immensely, but if you are just reading the book expecting to know what line to choose... you're going to spend some time. Still, the parts are accurate, and the song structure is clearly laid out, so for the tool it's intended to be, it's good. I'm not a fan of the style "repeat riff A 1 3/4 times", but I guess for the sake of brevity, it's functional. It really slows down the memorization of parts. But then, I'm picky.
